CIVIC SCORECARD

Being a civic leader is about all of the large and small actions we can take to be good neighbors and make our community a more positive place to live. Check off all of the civic actions you've completed:

Ate dinner with the person or people I lived with	Wrote an elected official about an issue I care about	Visited my local courthouse	Did a favor for one of my neighbors	Attended a school, youth or club meeting
Voted in a school election	Read about my representative in the state legislature	Shared my thoughts in class or at a public meeting	Played a World Games sport with friends or classmates	Posted about a civic activity on social media
Visited a farmers market or local business	Encouraged someone younger than me to get involved		Attended a local arts or cultural event	Worked with others to solve a community problem
Attended a community meeting	Discussed a current event with a friend or family member	Researched a candidate running for office	Talked with an adult about how they contribute to the community	Read about my representative in the state legislature
Read or watched local or national news	Volunteered in my community	Visited a local or state park	Attended a local pep rally or sporting event	Shared my perspective or idea with a local community leader
